Caucasian Mathematics Conference (CMC-III)

Rostov-on-Don, RUSSIA, August 26-29, 2019

First Announcement

The third Caucasian Mathematics Conference (CMC-III) will be organized in Rostov-on-Don, Russia on August 26-29, 2019, under the auspices of the European Mathematical Society (EMS) on the base of Southern Federal University and with cooperation of Armenian, Azerbaijan, Georgian, Iranian, Moscow and Turkish Mathematical Societies.

The main goal of Caucasian Mathematics Conferences (CMC) is to bring together mathematicians from Caucasian and neighboring countries biannually in one of participating states. We also welcome mathematicians from all over the world to take part in CMC. The first CMC-I was organized in Tbilisi, Georgia on September 5-6, 2014, the second CMC-II took place in Van, Turkey on August 22-24, 2017. The CMC conferences are partially supported by the European Mathematical Society.

The Scientific Advisory Committee (SAC) of CMC-III consists of the invited speakers of CMC-II. The Committee selects the invited speakers and young invited mathematicians proposed by the Steering Committee.

Here is the list of members of SAC:

1. Saied Azam (Iran)
2. Alexander Bufetov (Russia)
3. Pavel Exner (Czech Republic)
4. Tigran Harutyunyan (Armenia)
5. Garib Murshudov (Azerbaijan)
6. Eugene Shargorodsky (UK / Georgia)
7. Ali Ülger (Turkey)

The Steering Committee has been formed for the management of CMC conferences. It consists of representatives of participating mathematical societies and includes:

1. Volker Mehrmann (ex officio: President of European Mathematical Society)
2. Stanislaw Janeczko (ex officio: Chair of the EMS Solidarity Committee)
3. Yuri Movsisyan (President of Armenian Mathematical Society)
4. Asaf Hajiyevev (Representative of Azerbaijan Mathematical Society)
5. Roland Duduchava (Chairman of the Georgian National Committee for Mathematics)
6. Mohammad Sal Moslehian (Representative of Iranian Mathematical Society)
7. Armen Sergeev (Representative of Moscow Mathematical Society and Vice-President of EMS)
8. Betül Tanbay (Representative of Turkish Mathematical Society and Vice-President of EMS)

The Steering Committee is responsible for the scientific program of the conference, proposal of invited speakers and young invited mathematicians (under 40 years old) from participating mathematical societies, selection of the next organizers of CMC. The Chair of each CMC conference should be the member of the Steering Committee from the country organizing the conference.

The Organizing Committee is responsible for the organization of CMC-III and consists of: Armen Sergeev (Chair, ex officio), Alexey Karapetyants (Co-chair, local organizer), Vladislav Kravchenko, Joel Esteban Restrepo, Olga Pichugina (scientific secretary). Contacts: ruscmc2019@gmail.com

The Program of the Conference consists of Invited Talks (3-4 talks per day, 45 minutes each) and Parallel Sessions with Contributed Talks (20 minutes each). Any participant of CMC-III can organize its own Parallel Session if he/she can propose at least five speakers for it.

The Conference Fee: 30 USD or its equivalent in Rubles or Euros. Organizers will apply to different foundations for the financial support and hopefully will find funds to offer accommodation for selected participants.
